

Crayons

Idea

Look at a box of crayons. Take the crayons out. How are these crayons similar? You can color with them all. Are they different? They come in different colors.

Are any of these crayons more important than the others? No, you need all colors to create a rainbow.

How are these crayons like people? Each person is different from the others, but they are all needed.