

Light Dance

Song

I open my eyes, and I'm thrilled by the sight,
And the warmness embraces me back to the light.
I'm excited to go make my place in the world;
Look out here comes a marvelous child!

*Oh how the sky opens my view.
The light shows me the way;
My feet on the path running on!*

While resting my eyes and my feet on the grass,
I am thrilled by the wonderful people that pass
With their eyes looking on, what a fine moving mass!
In the light we all dance hand in hand!

*Oh how the sky opens my view.
The light shows me the way;
My feet on the path running on!
My feet on the path running on as we dance hand in hand in the light!*

The years they go by, and my journey goes on,
And I fondly remember the people who've gone.
But I love to encounter new friends and new songs.
Look out here comes the rest of my life!

*Oh how the sky opens my view.
The light shows me the way;
My feet on the path running on!*
