

Cans

Activity

Find things to put into a few empty cans.

Ask others if they can tell what is inside the cans by looking at the outside of each one, without picking them up or opening them.

Open each can one at a time, and show everyone else what is inside.

Why do we need to open the cans and look inside to really be able to tell what they hold? How are the cans like people?